

Whistleblower Protection Act

Compliance with legal, social and environmental standards, as well as the respect for human rights, are central pillars of our company philosophy. We place great value on a relationship built on trust.

If you have concerns regarding business practices or incidents at J.W. Ostendorf that may constitute a violation of the law, please contact your representative within our company in confidence so that we can find a swift solution together.

If this is not possible, our ombudsman is available to you as an internal reporting channel. Your information will be treated confidentially and your identity will be protected. Every report is carefully reviewed, and you will not suffer any disadvantages as a result.
